grow through stories

Internship: Content Writing

Join Bound as a full-time intern!

If you love researching new topics and subjects, enjoy writing in short and long formats, are deeply concerned about grammar and abbreviations, and can come up with random facts and word plays in no time, then this internship is for you!

What is the internship about?

Bound's year-round internship program offers an immersive experience for anyone wanting to deep-dive into India's ever-evolving content industry.

As a content writing intern, you

- Support team Bound in reading, reviewing, and editing scripts
- Write articles for Bound's magazine on a diverse range of topics
- Support in house research for editorial client projects
- Be the bubbly, happy, out-of-the-box-thinking "I have an idea" person everyone wants to be around.

What do we expect from you?

Good vibes, curiosity, and being part of team “let’s get our hands dirty” are important to thrive in Bound’s dynamic environment. In addition, you need to

- Have excellent writing, researching, and communication skills
- Be absolutely proficient in the English language
- Write boldly, and with the speed of light
- Understand storytelling formats
- Have the ability to explain complex topics in simple words
- Be full of ideas while at the same time understand the limitations of budgets and timelines when coming up with suggestions

What is the minimum internship duration?

We offer internships starting at 2 months (full-time), and that can extend up to 6 months. If you need a certificate for your university, or a testimonial / reference in a particular format, please inform us about it at the time of application.

The most important question: Will you get paid?

Yes! While you will not be able to buy a Ferrari after the time you spent with Bound, we ensure that you get compensated for your hard work, ideas, and brain power at industry standards.
